

I am so glad that K-LOVE is on the air here in our community. It is a blessing to have this station because they play good, uplifting music. The people that work at K-LOVE want their listeners to have a better, positive lifestyle. It would be awful if the station were taken off the air. A lot of people, including myself, depend on this station for the positive message and great music.